Meet Amy Soldavini

I completed my Master of Science in School Librarianship at McDaniel College this August. Prior to joining the staff at Meadow Hall, I taught 8th Grade English at Loiederman Middle School in Silver Spring. I live right here in Rockville with my husband Mark, and our two teenage children. Stephanie and Scott are both students at Rockville High School and both former Mustangs of Meadow Hall.

Our school library media center mission is to guide students to become lifelong learners equipped with the skills to think critically, inquire efficiently, and construct knowledge ethically.
